

12th Annual HBCU National Tennis Championships

September 27-30, 2012

Clayton County Tennis Center in Jonesboro, GA

The Clayton County Tennis Center at International Park, 2300 Hwy., 138, SE, Jonesboro, GA, will host the 12th Annual HBCU National Championships on Thursday, September 27th to Sunday, September 30th 2012. This year's competition will gather some of the top Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) representing NCAA division I, II and NAIA tennis programs. On the men's side, the RATTLEERS (Florida A&M University)--five (5) times defending champion--will have their work cut out as they seek to win another championship. On the women's side, the Southern University Lady Jaguars will once again be a big contender to win their fourth consecutive Championships.

Last year's event boasted the participation of 15 schools such as Alabama A&M, Alcorn State, Bethune-Cookman, Bluefield State, Clark-Atlanta, Florida A&M University, Fort Valley State, North Carolina A&T State, North Carolina Central, Hampton, Morehouse, Prairie View A&M, Savannah State, Southern, and Xavier University in Louisiana, as well as 150 student-athletes. The 12th Annual HBCU National Championships is anticipated to have the largest field of participants along with the best talents to complete for this year's National Championship titles.

The annual affair will also feature a Welcoming Mixer on Thursday, Pro-Am Double Tennis Mixer on Friday and Junior Tennis Clinic on Saturday's schedule which will be held at the Clayton County Tennis Center.

The 12th HBCU National Tennis Championships is proud of its sponsors with the support from the USTA Diversity and Inclusion, USTA Southern and USTA Florida, COAN Tennis Association Inc., Rainbow Tennis League, Goody4U Inc., Williams Property Group, and Clayton County Convention and Visitor Bureau.
